Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. was founded at Howard University in Washington, D.C. on January 13, 1913 by twenty-two African American undergraduate women. These women wanted to use their collective strength to promote academic excellence and lead social action initiatives on behalf of the African American community. Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. (the Sorority) is a private, non-profit organization whose purpose is to provide assistance and support through established programs in local communities throughout the world. As a sisterhood of more than 200,000 predominately Black college educated women, the Sorority currently has over 900 chapters located in the United States, England, Japan (Tokyo and Okinawa), Germany, the Virgin Islands, Bermuda, the Bahamas and the Republic of Korea. The major programs of the Sorority are based upon the organization's Five Point Thrusts of: Economic Development, Educational Development, International Awareness and Involvement, Physical and Mental Health, and Political Awareness and Involvement.
